the Hustings Court, had no part in the theft. Shanley was given one year in the penitentiary and Murray was honorably MATTERS MASONIC.

STAUNTON, Va., September 26, 1891.

which great professional players are mad THE CUSTOM-HOUSE.

Courts to Meet on the Fifth-Grand and WHOLE NUMBER. 12.534.

be taken up. The usual course is to referthe subject to the Committee on Plans, with directions to report to the General Committee a plan for choosing the candidates. The plan advised by the sub-committee is then adopted by the committee or rejected and another substituted for it.

Mr. Lamb further remarked that when he left the city in August he thought the prevailing public sentiment was for a primary election and he supposed there had been no change in that respect, though he could not say what the committee would do. TWO DOLLARS A DAY. el Committee Recommends Tha the Council Increase the Price for This Work. he City Engineer last evening, s, Stratton, Thomas, Tur-

TWO NEW CASES AND ONE DEATH.

tuary Figures for Last Week.

For the forty-eight hours ending at 6 o'clock yesterday afternoon two new cases of diphtheria and one death from the discase had been reported at the office of the Board of Health—viz.: complaint concerning the Franklin streets tember 27, 1890, 70°43.

Number of Visca Made by Physicians of Poor: First district, 31: Second district, 34: Third district, 41: Fourth district, 23.

Mr. Bass—Beeds Recorded.

Messrs. J. B. Elam & Co., real estate agents, sold yesterday the rasidence of Lewis Booker, No. 713 west Grace street, with lot 45x150 feet. Mr. Peyton R. Carrington was the purchaser at the price of $11,000. Great interest was manifested in the sale and the attendance was very area.

Newell to W. R. Mereda.

Newell to W. R. Mereda.

Park, $100.

Emma R. Redford to Eliza Reed, 31% feet on east side Carter street, $100.

Good Start at Richmond College.

Richmond College has started out this session under the most flattering auspices and the outlook for a big scholastic year is most promising. At 3 o'clock yesterday its students had matriculated, as against 144 at the close of the same day a year ago. It may be well to add that the enrolment at this period last year was larger than for many years previous. Hence the encouragement afforded in the number of students entered for this session.

Everything has moved off without friction and the young men have already however, that he will be on hand to days.

A member of the faculty vesterday in speaking to a Disearch reporter asserted that fully twenty-five more pupils would be in during the next few days, and that there were already about twelve or fitteen scholars who are in the city and who for some reason have not yet matriculated. He said the catalogue enrolment for the year would show at least two hundred students, which will be something unprocedented in the history of the college.

The following suits were entered in Judge Wellford's court yesterday: J. S. Moore against P. D. Cardwell for

J. S. Moore against J. T. Cardwell & Co., Father Brady being the J

J. S. Moore against J. J. Carlot $428.82.
J. W. Randolph & English against the Chesapeake and Ohio Railway Company for $200.
James and Marths Johnson against Thalhimer for $5,000. This suit is for damages for injuries alleged to have been received by Marths Johnson by the sign of the defendant falling upon her.

IS GOING ON IN THE RICH-MOND CHURCHES.

Congregations Increasing-The Y. M. C. A .- The Sunday - School Cause.

The congregations in the various churches Sunday showed that the Richmond peo-ple are rapidly returning from their sumcuding September 27, 1800, 19 white and 24 to obsored.

Randali: For week ending September 26, 1891, 0.11 inches.

The services at Seventh-Street Christian church; for week ending September 27, 1890, 1.11 inches.

The services at Seventh-Street Christian church; for week ending September 27, 1890, 1.11 inches.

The services at Seventh-Street Christian church; for week ending September 27, 1890, 1891, 1892, 1892, 1892, 1893, 1892, 1893, 1892, 1893, 1893, 1893, 1893, 1893, 1893, 1893, 1893, 1893, 1893, 1893, 1894, 1893, 1894, 1893, 1894

Saturday night he, with Fehreman Wren, tracked George Washington Jones and Nance Winston, the two negroes and Nance Winston, the two negroes who were concerned in the cutting of Lewis Washington, over a mile below Rocketts, officer Williams arrested both of them, and as the railroad-man who was for them, and as the railroad-man who was with him refused to hold either, he had to attract Pohesiman Wren, who was looking in another direction.

At 1 clocker Sunday morning he went have to sleep. A few hours later he was aroused by a great hu and cry. Martha Jones, a colored woman, had broken into

Mr. W. 1. Heefiler, supermission, gave a very interesting account of the school at this church. The officers and teachers are prompt and efficient. Eighty-three per cent, of the school was present last Sun-day. The pastor, Rev. Lekkey J. Phaup, spoke of the work done in the school and to Meses repeally good.

Interesting and instructive addresses were delivered by Professor J. L. Buchanin, of Randelpn-Macon College, Rev. Richard Bennett, of Washington-Street church, and Rev. Dr. P. A. Peterson, of Trinity

The following deeds of bargain and sale were recorded vestorday in the Clerk's of-nce of the Chancery Court. Emmanuel iverson to Henry Koss, per-Rev. J. Y. Fair, D. D. made a short, glow-ing address, which touched a responsive chord in the heart of every hearer.

The main address of the occasion was by Rev. J. P. Gammon, and had been an-ticipated by the audience with much piensure, and none were disappointed, for in loving, tender words he urged the vastness and importance of the work of Sunday school, the value of this Sunday-School Union, and the necessity for each one to be up and doing, as we hear the words of the Master saying "Feed My Lambs." E. A. Cathin and wife and Thomas D ewell to W. R. Meredith, lot 53 Robin

Houton.
The next meeting will be held the lest Sabbath in October with the Third most promising. At 3 o'clock yesterday 15s students had matriculated, as against 144 at the close of the same day a year ago. It may be well to add that the enrolment at this period hast year was larger than for many years previous. Hence the encouragement aflorded in the number of students entered for this session.

Everything has moved off without friction and the young men have already plunged into their books.

All of the faculty are at their posts except Professor Thomas, who is away at Fauquer Sulphur Springs on account of the filmess of his daughter. He writes, however, that he will be on hand in a few days.

A member of the faculty excepted as is a few days.

A member of the faculty excepted as is a few days.

ABOUT THE CATHOLICS.

Rev. Father Handley, of Portsmouth, who was for a number of years a resident in this city, has been transferred to the Church of the Sacred Heart as assistant to the pastor, Father O'Reilly, Father Handley was a great favorite among his people here and universal satisfaction is being expressed upon his return. He will come to Richmond to assume charge of his new duties the last of this week.

At the Cathedral on Sunday morning Rev. Father Frioli celebrated mass and a visiting priest preached to a large congregation.

Regular services were held at all the other Cathelic churches on Sanday.

Judge Witt yesterday heard several cases in the Hustings Court, and the following were disposed of:
George Shanley pleaded guilty to stealing a watch from the person of a man named Jackson. He admitted that R. J. Murray, whom he had testified against in the Police Court and who was sent on to pententiary and Murray was nonovary discharged.

Charles H. Randolph, charged with an assault on George C. Brooks, was given thirty days in jail and fined one cent.
Edward Fisher alias Edward Williams was convicted of an assault on Mary Francis Randolph and given three months in jail and fined one cent.
James Williams pleaded guilty to resisting and assaulting Officer Wren and was sent to jail for thirty days.

RICHMOND, VA., TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 29, 1891.

street and Church Hill avenue, where the Union Democratic Club was reorganized, Mr. Adam Diacont onlied the assemblage

The new Masonie lodge-Lodge of the Strict Observance—held its first regular communication at St. Albans hall last committees:

Executes Committee, J. B. Weish, A. N. Gill, Second Marshall; N. B. Grooms, James Gibbons, Fourth Jefferson; Adam Diacont, John Fiournoy. Third Marshall.

Figures Committee, E. H. Furgusson, John Mann, and T. P. Murphy.

The Grand Master sent a letter of re-grets to Right Wor hipful William Ryan and to Worshipful Master Carmichael. The letter to the Master of the lodge was read. It was as follows: MR. FAUNTLEROY SPEARS. MR. FAUNTIEROY SPEASS.

Président Culingworth announced that all further business would be suspended to allow the candidates to express their views, and introduced as the first speaker Mr. R. Fauntleroy, who addressed the large meeting and urged his claims for a seat in the House of Delegates in a speech of fifteen minutes and was applauded at its class. Rev. Harley Carmichael, Master of Lodge of the Strict Observance, Richmond, Va.:

Mr. Reverley B. Munford next took the stand and after briefly extending thanks for the courtesty extended by the club and its cordad reception, said: "To represent this great city, to speak for its commercial, manufacturing, and industrial intercets a laudable ambition, and so I make no apologies in presenting mixelf as a candidate after frepeated solicitations from all sections of the city and all classes of our people."

Mr. Munford gave a brief summary of his political and legislative career and said he appealed to his record in the past as as an indication of what his course would be in the future upon all questions affecting the public weal. He cordially endorsed aid to the Soldiers' flome, and for separate radwar-cars for whites and blacks, and for such legislation as may be necessary to cantie the Councils of the several cities to the street-cars.

point alone, and is pronounced by those who are competent to judge, to be a perfect likeness of Mr. Davis, at the same makes the old hanks for the citizenses of Mr. Davis, and the spirit of the man and is a standard. The frame is an elegant the spirit of the man and is a standard. The frame is an elegant the spirit of the man and is a standard. The frame is an elegant the spirit of the man and is a standard. The frame is an elegant the spirit of the man and is a standard. The frame is an elegant the spirit of the man and is a standard. The frame is an elegant the spirit of the man and is a standard. The frame is an elegant the spirit of the man and is a standard. The frame is an elegant the spirit of the man and is a standard. The frame is an elegant the spirit of the man and is a standard. The frame is an elegant the spirit of the man and is a standard. The frame is an elegant the spirit of the man and is a standard. The frame is an elegant the spirit of the man and is a standard. The frame is an elegant the spirit of the man and is a standard. The frame is an elegant the spirit of the man and is a standard. The frame is an elegant the spirit of the man and i IMPOSTANT DUTIES TO PERFORM. Mr. Muntord said he desired to arouse There was a match game of ball at Island Park vesterday afternoon between the Lattle Potatoes and the Elks. Gentry and Carr were the battery for the former and Wilson and Bensley for the latter. The score stool 6 to 7 in favor of the Elks.

The deputation of Little Potatoes, who called at the Disparon office to have the result of the game published manimously insisted that their opponents won by the "cheating of the unpire." This goes to show that though young in years the Potatoes have the material in them out of which great professional players are made.

"The Democratic party is never so safe

"The Democratic party is never so safe as when conscious of its danger. If the wise counsel and conciliatory policy of our worthy and sagacious leader, Mayor Ellyson, are followed there will be no division in the Democratic ranks, but the great party will in 1872, as in the past, present a united front to the common enemy." Mr. Munford's speech was received with repeated marks of favor.

Mr. John Jackson was the next speaker Mr. John Jackson was the next speaker, and pledged his earnestness to carry out all measures that would enure to the interests of the city. He was a staunch Democrat, true to the color line. He returned thanks for the compliment of calling on him, and closed with an appeal for the support of the votes of the people of the club.

THE OLD WAR-HORSE.

Captain J. J. English, the old war-horse, a resident for over forty years of the section of the city near where he stood, was the next speaker, and met with a cordial greeting from the meeting. He asked a careful examination of his past record as councilman for many years, and as a member of the Legislature and other duties which he was called upon to do on the surrender of the city and the subsequent enabling act. He asked his people for one more honor, and that was to send him to the General Assembly at the next session. Squire Jones followed and said he had two hobbies—separate street-cars and an increased appropriation for the old solders' home. He believed he could also represent the city in other respects and on other questions.

LAST ON THE LIST. Petit Jurors—R. A. Miller, Burkville; Charles Old, Genito: W. S. Upsher, Newport News: J. M. Terry, Boydton: A. A. Haskins, Meherrin: W. A. Thaxter, Worsham: D. W. Leary, Mattoax, E. J. Tonnis, Amelia Courthouse: A. E. Moore and M. R. Lloyd, Manchester: W. D. Spratley, A. G. M. Martin, W. C. Orr, Walker Kevan, Petersburg: and Samuel Bender, W. S. Kerr, David Lewis, Michael Carmody, Nelson Marx Charles W. Bagland, George W. Drewy, George D. Pleasants, Jordan Robinson, and William Nott, Richmond.

Government Inspector of the Department of Justice Nightingale was in the city yesterday examining the papers in the Clerk's offices.

LAST ON THE LIST.

Mr. R. W. Powers closed the speaking by the candidates and briefly gave his views of the measures to be brought before the Legislature, and said if elected he would do his utmost to advance the interests and welfare of Richmond and as a business-man he believed he knew her wants and desires. He appealed for the support of the people at the polis, for now that hesis in the race he wants to win.

Mr. J. F. Flourney called to the club the resolution of the Old Dominion to escort the ten Democratic congressmen from Virginia to Washington in December next, and asked the Union Democratic Club to send a committee to confer with similar committees on Tuesday next, which request was adopted, and the Fresident selected Messrs. Crump, Weisiger, and Cullingworth.

HE GOT THERE LATE.

Mr. J. Taylor Stratton having entered Rev. Mr. Wiley's Good Work.

A Lynchburg gentleman who was in the city yesterday gave a very gratifying account of the good work being done it that city by Rev. George H. Wiley, formerly of Richmond, and for several years pastor of the Fifth-Street Methodist church in Manchester. To a Distance reporter this gentleman said: "Mr. Wiley's success as an evangelist during this year has been phenomenal. His labors have been crowned with great success in other directions as well. He has inaugurated a night school that is in a very flourishing condition, and his work as city missionary has surpassed the most sanguine expectations."

More Indictments Found.

The grand jury of the Henrico County Court was in session yesterday and found five indictments.

One civil case was tried, that of S. B. Ginn against Mrs. Kyles. Judgment was rendered in favor of the plaintiff or $3.25.

The case of Lewis Masenero, charged with shooting Peter Augustine, will be tried at the October term. The accused is set on bell Co-Operative Investment Association.

The stockholders of the Co-Operative Investment Association of Richmond held their annual meeting last night, and the following officers were re-elected for the

ANXIOUS FOR VOTES.

CANDIDATES FOR THE HOUSE PRESSING THEIR CLAIMS.

Union Club Reorganized and Speeches
Made by Messra Munford, Powers,
Fauntieroy, Jackson, and Others.

The voters of Marshall and Jefferson Wards turned out in large numbers last night and held a mammoth meeting at Powell's pretty new hall, Twenty-fourth street and Church Hill avenue, where the

Mr. William Garl Browne's Commission and before the body what concrume the circumstance of the concrument the circumstance of th and strength of character. It is not necessary to know that it is a portrait of Mr.

Davis in order to appreciate that it represents a great man embodying a great cause.

In flesh tints and all the other essentials of coloring Mr. Brown has more tunn sustained his enviable reputation. The hands triumph, not only as respects anatomy but as regards character. The hair and beard are treated with superb delicacy, yet with decision, and the fold details and texture of the drapery, both of figure and background, are exquisite in their truthulless, it is a grand picture of a grand subject, considered from an artistic standpoint alone, and is pronounced by those who are competent to judge, to be a perfect likeness of Mr. Duvis at the time he of first assumed the reins of the Confederate

A special meeting of the Jefferson Literary and Social Circle was held at Ellett's Hallsunday afternoon to give the members an opportunity to meet socially the Rev. Mr. Chisch. There was a very large attendance, including a number of ladies.

Mr. Calisch was escorted to the hall by Messrs, S. L. Bloomberg, Charles Hutzler, and Charles Straus, a committee appointed and Charles Straus, a committee appointe

At the conclusion of these remarks which were liberaly applauded, Mr. Juliu Straus, one of the three honorary men-bors of the organization, responded on it years ago.

Before the meeting adjourned, at the urgent solicitation of those who had come in late and missed Mr. Calisch's remarks that gentleman made a second short speech, in which he in different language reiterated the gist of his former address.

Superintendent of Water-Works Bolling City Engineer Cutshaw, and members of the Committee on Sanitation of the Cham-ber of Commerce, went up the river yes terday on a general inspection of the quali-

The regular monthly meeting of the Po-lice Board will be held at 5 o'clock on Fri-day evening instead of on Thursday. The change is by order of the Mayor, who will be out of the city on Thursday.

Mr. L. Courtney will leave Richmond to-day for Brunswick, Ga., on business for a northern syndicate.

Mr. J. B Book and wife, of Clayton, Del., who have been visiting Mr. Jones A. Otay, 511 north Eighth istreet, left yes-terday for Florida. Mr. Frank Smith, associate editor of the National Cyclopedia, is in the city.

Mrs. J. D. K. Sleight has returned to the city after an absence of two months, spent most delightfully with relatives in the West.

Miss M. E. Minor, of No. 3 west Grace street, is visiting in Brooklyn, N. Y. Mr. R. L. Wells, of No. 1314 west Cary street, who has been on a visit to acquaint-ances in Hanover county, returned yester-day.

Miss Addie Gresham, of Petersburg, is here on a visit to her friends, the Misses Nicholas, of west Main street. Mr. Thomas Fowler, of 714 west Marshall street, who has been ill for several weeks with typhoid-fever, is improving.

Rev. James L. Lancaster, chaplain of the University of Virginia, has been in the city for several days and left yesterday to visit his brother in Ashland.

visit his brother in Asbiand.

Mrs. Henry G. Berger, who is expected to return to the city in a few days from Jackson, Mich., where she spent the summer, writes that her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lincoln Wood, will accompany her to Richmond and will spend the winter here. It is possible that Mr. Wood will determine to make this his future home.

Messrs. Ashton Starke, T. C. Bain, G. W. Tabb, and Tom Washington leave this morning for a hunt on the James-river marshes.

Mr. Robert Roykin has declined the

Mr. Robert Boykin has declined the flattering call to stand for the Legislature from this city, which was made upon him by his numerous friends.

Rev. W. L. Wright, of Reidsville, N. C., the new pastor of Leigh-Street Baptist church, will preach his first sermon to this congregation next Sunday. Mr. Wright, who is about thirty-five years old, is said to be an unusually attractive and forcible pulpit orator.

TEXT-BOOK & FORM. EUROPE FOR PEACE.

OPENING YESTERDAY OF THE PUBLIC SCHOOLS OF THE CITY.

The regular monthly meeting of the City School Board was held at the High School building at 60'clock yesterday afternoon. Present: Hon. J. Taylor Ellyson (chairman). Hon. William Lovenstein, James C. Dickerson, E. D. Starke, Alonzo L. Phillips, T. Wiley Davis, James H. Capers, J. Taylor Stratton, R. Edgar Shine, Superintendent Fox, and Charles P. Rady,

The Superintendent in his report states that all the schools opened vesterday morning at 9 o'clock, with the following earolment, which, however, does not give a correct idea of what the enrolment will be, since only the old scholars were entered:

white schools.

Total white and colored, 8,373.

NIGHT SCHOOLS.

The night schools at Elba, Springfield, and Nicholson buildings will be regularly opened on Thursday night, October 1st, at 7-30 o'clock.

For the white schools Miss Bell Worsham, and for the colored schools Maggie Stevens, isabell M. Hill, Lucy J. Woodson, Mary A. Cousuns, and M. Jane Boyd were elected as additional reserve teachers.

The heard then, after the transaction of some routine business, adjourned.

The enrolment is very satisfactory, the number in each of the school buildings being almost as large as is usual for the first day.

To-day new scholars will be received.

To-day new scholars will be received and on Wednesday the schools will start regularly to work.

BEALTH PERCAUTIONS.

During vacation the school buildings have been thoroughly cleaned up and various improvements made which will add to their sanitary condition and the comfort of the pupils.

The President of the Board of Health will daily send to the office of the Supermetendent the name and residence of corsons having contagious diseases of any kind. No child will be permitted to enter or continuo at school living in or next to a house where there is scarlet-lever, measies, or any other disease regarded as contagious.

Every rule calculated to guard against the introduction of disease into the schools will be rigidly enforced.

The DUSINESS COURSE. REALTH PRECAUTION

Under the revised course of the High School languages and some other studies can be omitted and a business course be

THE SATURDAY NIGHT DUEL. Washington Too Badly Hart to Appear in Court-Other Cases Heard.

Court—Other Cases Heard.

The cutting affray which occurred on Saturday night between George Washington Jones and Lewis Washington (colored) was attended with such serious results to the latter that he was unable to be at the Police Court yesterday morning when the case was called, and Jones was only able to be present by the assistance of a carriago. He was hadly mutilated having great gashes in his sides and on his head. I wo bystanders, Nace Winston and Moses Miller, were charged with niding and abetting Jones in the affair, and a slight investigation was gone into on motion for bail for these two. The whole case was continued until October 8th, and Miller and Winston were allowed hail in the sum of $500, in default of which they were remanded to jail.

Stafford Garthbright, charged with cursing, abusing, and threatening to assault Coon Outland, and with being drunk and disorderly to the sunovance of the neighborhood, was fixed $2.50 and costs.

Alexander Lewis and Johe Carter (both les of wearing apparel. The case was ent to the flustones Court. Georgiana Lewis went down in default security of $100 for six months on the

THE AMULANCE BUSY.

it Was Called Out Five Times Yester-There were five ambulance calls yester.

There were five ambulance calls yesterday as follows:
At 11:35 A. M. to Wortham & Co.'s boxfactory to attend a white man whose hand had been badly lacerated by a circular-saw.
He was treated and left.
At 1:25 P. M. to look after a negro who was suffering from an epileptic fit. He was turned over to friends.
At 2:10 P. M to Davenport & Morriss's to heal a negro man from the country, who was suffering from cramp-colic. He was sent home.

was suffering from cramp-coite. He was sent home.

At 4 P. M. to the Richmond Locomotive-Works, to attend a white employe, who had received a wound in the forearm.

Treated and left.

At 7.15 to the corner of Ninth and Bank streets, to a white man named Isnac Cohen, who claimed to have been beaten. He was taken in his home near the Old

THE POPE RECEIVES MORE PILGRIMS

Especially During October.

[By Angle-American cable to the Dispatch.]

Rows, ITALY, September 23,—The Pope received at St Peter's to-day 4,000 pilgrims of societies for the young. He passed through the ranks of the pilgrims, addressing them and giving them his hand to kiss and was received with devout acclamations. An encyclical is published advising the faithful use of the rosary especially during October, and the practice of Christain penitence in order to enable the Church to obtain peace.

Privileges soid.

The Third market presented the liveliest scene known in its history at noon yesterday. The Council Committee governing this structure met at the market for the purpose of selling stail privileges. Mr. James F. Flournoy, the clerk of the Second market, was invited to the stand and he did the "crying" very effectively. All the fruit-stands except one were soid and a large number of meat-stails were taken. The new market will be formally opened on the 1st of October and the outlook for good business is encouraging.

A white operative named Brusbear while engaged yesterday sawing wood in a yard on Eighteenth street near Grace had his arm very badly cut by the circular saw. The flesh was ceverely lacerated and the bone injured. He was taken to his home on Union Hill, where a physician rendered the necessary attention.

The will of Mrs. Alice E. Spence was admitted to probate in the Chancery Court yesterday and Captain E. Leslie Spence qualified as executor. The will was made September 15, 1888. The estate is valued at about $3,000.

A. V. Shea qualified as administrator of the estate of W. H. Shea, deceased.

THREE CENTS PER COPY.

SO MAINTAINS THE CHANCELLOR OF THE GERMAN EMPIRE.

Re-Establishment of the Equilibrium-Other Foreign News of Interest.

Berlin, Gzn., Septembhr 28. -Upon the ceasion of the jubilee of the Seventylong optimistic speech upon the political situation in Europe. He said that the situation in Europe. He said that the apprehensions in some quarters as to whether the existing state of things would be maintained were not warranted. Not one of the sovereigns, he added, wished to disturb the peace of Europe or to provoke a European war. Even the approachments between States which had recently occurred did not afford ground for alarm. They were merely the expression of already existing circumstances. Parhaps they were nothing more than the establishment of a European equilibrium such as formarly existed. No European government, the Chancellor continued, desired war, which in its sufferings and consequences, would probably be more terrible than all previous wars. The internal affairs to which the Emperor was devoting special attention would, he said, also be brought to a sainfactory issue, though the process might extend over decades. The Government had the interests of the employed and of employers at heart. Later in the day, speaking to the officers of the Seventy-eighth regiment, Chancellor von Caprivi said that all the Emperor's efforts would be directed toward the welfare of the country and the maintenance of peace.

Receiverships to the White Fallare, [By telegraph to the Dispatch.]

New York, September 23.—On April 15, 1891, Franklin W. Hopkins and S. V. White & Co., of this city, entered into an agreement of partnership with Arthur W. Allen, of Chicago, who immediately opened an office of the firm in Chicago, Whom the great failure occurred list week the creditors of the Chicago firm began proceedings to protect themselves. On September 22d Mr. Allen obtained from the Circuit Court for the Northern district of Illinois an order appointing the Illinois Trust and Savings Bank receiver of the Chicago firm and providing for that firm's dissolution. Among the assets of the latter firm is a claim against the firm in this city. Mr. Allen therefore applied to the Cricuit Court for the Southern district of New York for the appointment of a receiver of the co-partnership property and effects of S. V. White & Co., which receivership should be auxiliary to the receivership herefore created by the Oricuit Court of the Northern district of Blinois. To-day Judge Larcombe appointed the Central Trust Company as such receivers.

The sale of seats for the High Comedy Season which is to begin on Thursday at the Theatre began yesterday. The indications are of a most gratitying fashionable success. Our community have all faith in Manager Ford's promises, and stayle respect to his superb attractions with large and refined audiences.

The present occasion is transful with inwith large and refined audiences.

The present occasion is fraught with interest of value to the stage and society, because it is a new departure in the right direction and will partake of a welcome to a young comedian who represents the best blood of his profession supplemented by the highest culture, and a young lay to "the manner (and to Virgiona) born," who captured all the honors of her schools and since has captured the lowers of pure comedy by her brilliant stage work.

Alexander Lewis and John Carter (both colored) paid costs for beating Joseph Mr. Oscar Cranz's beautiful house. No.

For a mild, juley chew try the Queen Bee Tobacco. Sold by Taylon & Belling Company, No. 11 south Fourteenth street, seed in many families of this city to pre-vent diphtheria, and where it has appeared to arrest its progress. In this it has been remarkably successful. It is a powerful but harmless germ-destroyer and the best decodorizer. For sale by druggists, Price 50 cents a bottle.

Away, away with all the rest, Queen Bee Tobacco is the best, THE TAYLOR & BOLLING COMPANY, No. 11 south Fourteenth street.

Ask your grocer for Queen Bee Tobacco Bave You Seen

Let us show you
Leonard Heights.
Jackson Brandt & Co., Agents,
No. 1005 east Main street.

Look at the long list of names handling the Queen Bee Tobacco. lemonade, or soda ten drops of ANGORTCHA BITTERS. It imparts a delicious flavor and prevents Malaria and all Summer Diseases. Be sure and get the genuine Angostura, manufactured only

AUCTION SALES TO-DAY.

J. B. ELAM & CO., 514 P. M., brick store and dwelling No. 19 west Leigh street. N. W. BOWE, 5 P. M., residence No 211 cass Main street, between Second and Third streets.

STREET, WILLIAM JENKINS & SON, 12 M., bensher

FALL SUITS. CLOTHIERY.

Brockway, Harmon Na-

HENRICO COUNTY COURT.

The special services inaugurated at the various Methodist churches last week were if the hands of cre pand $2 a day 2 colored; forty years to saxty, 1 white; sixty years to seventy, 1 white and 1 colored; seventy years to eighty, 1 white.

Condition: Single, 21 white and 7 colored; narried, 4 white and 3 colored; widow, crs, 1 colored; wildow, 1 white and 2 colored; married, 4 white and 3 colored; widow, crs, 1 colored; wildow, 1 white and 2 colored.

Mr. Thomas, a was as fel. Thomas, and the referred.

Comparative weekly mortality for week ending September 26, 1891, 28 white and 13 colored.

The Council the Co

turch.
The next meeting will be held at Trinity thurch in October.
THE PRESBYTERIAN UNION.

THE PRESENTERIAN UNION.

All the regular pastors of the Presbyterian churches occupied their pulpits on Sunday, and in the atternoon the regular meeting of the Sunday-School Union of Richmond and Manchester was held in the Mauchester church, Mr. J. D. K. Sieight tyresident) in the chair and Mr. James W. Gordon secretary.

A carefully-prepared programme was well carried out, and the singing led by the Manchester school was especially choice and spirited. The opening prayer was offered by Mr. George Watt and a selection of Scripture read by Rev. Dr. Fair. Interesting reports and valuable suggestions were made by Messrs Watt, Pleasants, Parsons. Gardner, Johnson, Goolsby, Word, Fair, and Steight, giving brief accounts of the condition and prospects of their respective schools. No reports were made from the Second and Oid-Market schools.

Lambs."

Brief closing remarks were made by President Sleight, followed by the closing hymn —

"Sound the battle cry, see the foe is nigh.

Enlise the standard high for the Lord."

And the benediction by Rev. C. N. Van-

Rev. Dr. W. V. Tudor conducted the regular weekly prayer-meeting Sunday afternoon at the Young Men's Christian Association Hall. His theme was "The Believer's Bank."

The quartette rendered excellent music. The regimental choir had its usual song service at the Armory in the afternoon.

The Jefferson-Florence Engagement of Jefferson and Florence at the Academy of Music next Monday and Tuesday nights will be "The Rivals" the first night, and "Heir-at-Law" the second night. No matinee will be given. The indications are for overwhelming houses, Several large excursions from out of town have been arranged. Tickets go on sale next Friday at 9 A. M.